

Ticket Policy:

All tickets purchased are non-refundable. However, registrations may be transferred to another participant up to one week prior to the event. Access details for the virtual event will be shared with registered participants upon confirmation of payment.

Liability:

Common Core Boot Camp, Copperstone Education, and its partners, sponsors, and vendors are not liable for any technical issues, disruptions, or losses arising from participation in the virtual event, including but not limited to internet connectivity, hardware, or software limitations.

Program Changes:

The organizers reserve the right to modify the event schedule, speakers, or content as necessary to ensure the best possible experience.

Photography & Media:

By attending, participants consent to the recording of sessions, including audio, video, and chat interactions, for promotional and educational purposes.

Code of Conduct:

Participants are expected to engage respectfully and professionally in all virtual interactions. The organizers reserve the right to remove any participant from the event without refund in cases of misconduct or inappropriate behavior.

Force Majeure:

The organizers are not responsible for cancellations, delays, or disruptions caused by circumstances beyond their control, including but not limited to technical failures, platform outages, government restrictions, or emergencies.

Data Protection:

Participant information will be used solely for event administration and communications. Authorized sponsors may send appreciation messages where permitted. All data will be handled in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

Payment Processing:

Registration is not considered complete until full payment has been received. Access to the virtual event will only be granted to fully registered participants.