To ensure the fashion show remains fun, inclusive, and manageable for all participants, we have established the following participation guidelines:

- Each fashion show entry is limited to a maximum of 4 participant's total.
- Participation limits by category are as follows:
 - Patient Spotlight: 1 participant
 - Patient & Caregiver: 2 participants
 - Patient & Peer: 2 participants

Patient & Family: Up to 3–4 participants

- All participants must be registered conference attendees and listed during the sign-up process.

These guidelines allow us to celebrate everyone while ensuring the show runs smoothly and on time. Thank you for helping us create a positive and joyful experience for all!

We recognize that families come in many shapes and sizes. If your situation does not fit within these guidelines, please reach out to the Oley team. We are happy to explore alternative ways to celebrate your family during the conference.

Medical Equipment Statement

Medical equipment, mobility aids, feeding tubes, pumps, backpacks, and other necessary devices are always welcome and encouraged as part of your look. This show celebrates real life, real bodies, and real journeys.

Rules

Product advertisement is not permitted unless it is a product you use regularly.

Each registrant may only participate in one category.

You must register and attend the conference to participate/win.

All outfits must be family friendly.

- All models must provide a description of their outfit by June 8. Closer to the event, registrants will receive an email asking for this information.
- Outfits worn on the day of the show MUST match the description provided prior to the event.
- All models must participate in the pre-show meeting held on the day of the event.
- Clinicians and registrants representing industry are welcome to participate; however, they may not win any prizes.

Oley reserves the right to request minor adjustments to outfits if needed to ensure the event remains family-friendly, respectful, and safe for all participants.
